Here the woman shut him up in an outhouse with one of the ducks and waited until her husband got home when he killed the dog by shooting. Mr. T. telephoned Dr. Lyford that prior to that time they had a tramp dog that had killed several chickens and bit other dogs. He knew the dog in question was bitten. The tramp dog was killed when he began to show signs of being ugly. This was about the latter part of July or 1st of August, 1901. The heifer was paralyzed behind; could raise herself probably a foot from the ground and could only carry herself for five or six feet at a time....
