Xulon Press, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 211 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Bombarded, plagued, cornered, and even immobilized by unforeseen circumstances - emotions, unwarranted accusations, unjust ridicule, abandonment, and misunderstanding - how do I stay afloat? How do I rebound and apprehend hope? How can I steady my feet to choose the right path after the tornado of thoughts have obscured the roadway? How can I see through the dense cloud of my thoughts to make proper assessment of my life or situation? Where can I find the strength, reasoning, or the mindset to press on when all the air from the balloon of my life has been totally deflated? My tires are spinning, the treads of thinking have been in such a rut they are now bald, and I m stranded on ice. Can a mind that has been seared from the struggles of childhood through the crises of adulthood be transformed? About the Author: A servant of God, who has given his life in service to God s Kingdom, has in humility dedicated his testimony on behalf of the Messianic Minchah Experience for the benefit of those who seek to understand their circumstances and desire a more intimate relationship with the Lord. Gerald Griffith releases this writing with the hope that it will be a tool in the hand of the instructor - the Holy Spirit. Having been brought to this Achor Valley experience, the place of deep brokenness, crushing, and suffering so that the life of Christ may be revealed through him, it s his earnest prayer and sincere desire that those who, by grace and the leading of God s Spirit, come to this testimony and renewing power would also embrace new life and new...
