Reviews

This pdf is indeed gripping and interesting. It is definitely simplistic but shocks within the 50 percent of your book. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

A small Sunday-school library would be a boon to that community. Sunday-School Plans of the Board. It is the desire of the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work to organize, through its missionaries and colporteurs, as many new Presbyterian Sunday-schools as possible. It is the desire of the Board to provide, through its Editorial Department, our Presbyterian Sunday-schools with the best possible literature, especially Sunday-school papers, lesson helps, supplemental lessons, and teacher-training courses. It is also the desire of the Board to aid, through its Sabbath-school Department, in developing and strengthening, as far as possible, the work that is now being done in the Sunday-schools of our Church. There is evidently here a wide field of work, and the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work is just as evidently the Board that should attempt to cultivate this field. Constant progress is being made in the Sunday-school. There is no department of church life in which so great progress has been made during the last twenty-five years. It is important that our Presbyterian Sunday-school workers should know what are the best modern plans and methods of Sunday-school work, and be informed how they can be put into successful operation. In the Sunday-school publications of the Board, and by means of leaflets sent directly to pastors and superintendents, it is hoped that part of this information may be given. We hope, however, more particularly to be able to...
