Copper Canyon Press, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 224 x 150 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. This may be the most anticipated poetry book of the last decade.expect it to haunt you. NPR.orgIn reviewing Richard Siken s first book, Crush, the New York Times wrote that his territory is [where] passion and eloquence collide and fuse. In this long-awaited follow-up to Crush, Siken turns toward the problems of making and representation, in an unrelenting interrogation of our world of doublings. In this restless, swerving book simple questionssuch as, Why paint a bird? are immediately complicated by concerns of morality, human capacity, and the ways we look to art for meaning and purpose while participating in itsand our owninvention.* Slippery, magnetic riffs on the arbitrary divisions made by the human mind in light of the mathematical abstractions that delete them; poetry lovers will want to read. Library Journal, starred review [P]oems of passion, examining what it means to love, to be, and to create. Vanity Fair Siken s stark, startling collection focuses tightly on both the futility and the importance of creating art. Booklist Poems primarily about painting and representation give way to images that become central...
