THE Corresponding Secretary, Mr. Cremer, reported that Prof. Louis Soldan, Supt. of the Public Schools, had sent him a communication, saying that the Teachers Committee of the School Board has passed favorably upon our request that the children of the public schools participate by active work in our festival, and that they had authorized Mr. Wittich, their Supervisor of Gymnastics, to prepare for an exhibition of school work by about 4000 pupils. The Chairman, Mr. Muench, reported that all contracts relating to our lease of the Fair Grounds had been signed and that we now have full control of the whole grounds, including one mile race-track, grand stand, amphi theatre, etc. The Finance Committee reported an income of $2,921.65. The Press Committee reported that No. 4 of the Festzeitung has been published and that they intended to publish a Guide for the visitors. The matter was laid over until a later meeting, in order to give the committee more time to submit plans. The question of employing an official reporter, whose business it will be to provide the papers (English and German) as...
